Judging assignments and forms are located at https://symposium.foragerone.com/uuraf2022. You must be logged into your account to access this information. Select the “Judging” tab at the top of the page. All evaluations must be complete by 5:00 PM Eastern on April 8, 2022.

Evaluate presentations according to the following criteria:

- DELIVERY: The presentation was organized and delivered in a clear, engaging, and professional manner.
- COMPREHENSIBILITY: The presentation could be understood by an educated but non-expert audience.
- SIGNIFICANCE: The presenter explained the significance of the work, and how it contributes to broader research on the subject area.
- ELEMENTS: The presenter adequately addressed the project’s essential elements: Introduction, literature review, conceptual framework, methods, & analysis
- CURRENT STATUS: The presenter effectively illustrated the current status of the project (e.g., results, discussion of findings)
- VISUAL AIDS: The visual aids were appropriate, effectively used, and appealing.

SCORING: A five-point scale is used to score each criterion. Points are added up to determine a total score. Maximum total score is 30 points. IMPORTANT: THERE CAN ONLY BE ONE FIRST-PLACE WINNER IN YOUR CATEGORY.
