Thank you for volunteering to evaluate presentations at the University Undergraduate Research and Arts Forum (UURAF) happening on April 14th at the Breslin Center. Proceed to the location of your assigned presentations to begin the evaluations. All evaluations must be complete by 5:00 PM Eastern on April 14th. Our hope is that you will engage presenters in meaningful dialogue about their research and provide targeted feedback to help them improve their presentations.

EVALUATION CRITERIA:
Evaluate the poster and oral presentations using the criteria below.

- DELIVERY: The presentation was organized and delivered in a clear, engaging, and professional manner.
- COMPREHENSIBILITY: The presentation could be understood by an educated but non-expert audience.
- SIGNIFICANCE: The presenter explained the significance of the work, and how it contributes to broader research on the subject area.
- ELEMENTS: The presenter adequately addressed the project’s essential elements: Introduction, literature review, conceptual framework, methods, & analysis
- CURRENT STATUS: The presenter effectively illustrated the current status of the project (e.g., results, discussion of findings)
- VISUAL AIDS: The visual aids were appropriate, effectively used, and appealing.

EVALUATING PRESENTATIONS:

Evaluators providing feedback to students should:
- Ask the student to present their research.
- Ask clarifying questions.
- Engage the student in conversation about your feedback.
- Offer suggestions for future presentations or future directions of research.
- Complete and submit the online evaluation form.

SUBMITTING EVALUATIONS:

A computer, tablet, or smart phone is required to submit evaluations. Use the link or QR code to access the evaluation form. Please submit evaluations into the online system by April 14th at 5pm Eastern.
